

Weakening of the Wisconsin No Call List should not even be considered. For once, the government has done something to help the average citizen and now that is being threatened. I would strongly urge you to not weaken the Wisconsin No Call List policy.1